

Health & Safety Policy

Marshall Agroecology Limited

Updated: 7 January 2011

Marshall Agroecology Limited:

Whilst the company employs less than five employees and is therefore not obliged to implement formal Health & Safety policies,

- we are committed to ensuring the safety of our employees, customers and anyone else affected by our business' activities.
- responsibility for health and safety in the business rests with Dr EJP Marshall, Director.
- all employees are responsible for taking care of their own health and safety and that of the people they work with.
- we recognise all legal duties our business is bound by and we will provide a safe working environment, safe work equipment and safe methods of work.
- the safety policy will be implemented via risk assessments using forms MARiskForm1.DOC and MARiskForm2.DOC and by using Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) where appropriate that will be updated annually.
- all accidents are to be recorded on the company Accident Report form held as file MAAccidentReport.doc on the main company PC.
- Our environmental policy is available online at :
